

IFIP Masters and Doctoral Symposium 2018 (Southern Africa Region) Programme:

Theme: Locally Relevant Application of Theory

Admin and Catering; Joint Sessions; Separate Room Sessions

TIME	ACTIVITY
8h30 – 9h00	Registration
9h00 – 9h15	Welcome and Introduction ( Ms Gugulethu Baduza and Dr Marita Turpin )
9h15 – 9h45	KEYNOTE: Dr L.J Phahlamohlaka – IFIP representative
9h45 – 10h30	KEYNOTE: Prof Geoff Walsham - Succeeding in Arguing/Justifying your Application of Theory (15-20min presentation, 25-30min Q&A discussion workshop)
10h30 – 11h00	TEA
11h00 – 13h00 (30mins each – 20mins presentation 10mins Q&A Engagement)	ROOM 1 (Main Seminar Room)	ROOM 2
	1. A Mobile Application Innovation Ecosystem Framework for Botswana ( Admore Nyamaka )	1. Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning enhancing South African SMME ( Daniel Ncwane )
	2. Constructs of a Framework of Mobile Payment Systems Adoption by Small Medium Enterprises (SMEs) in South Africa ( Alick Chingapi )	2. Technology Evaluation Model ( Edzai Kademeteme )
	3. Implementation of Mobile Health Technology as an Enhancement Tool for Health Services in South Africa: A Stakeholder-Centered Exploration ( Idon Sibuyi )	3. Beyond Sustainability: Towards an Implementation Outcomes framework for ICT4D Projects ( Faith Chauke )
	4. The Use of Indigenous Models to Support the Integration of ICT into Teaching & Learning in Previously Disadvantaged Schools in Grahamstown, Eastern Cape, South Africa ( Uzoma Odera )	4. Guidelines for the use of technology in higher education, based on human computer interaction principles, from a Dooyeweerdian perspective ( Imelda Smit )
13h00 – 14h00	LUNCH
14h00 – 16h00 (30mins each – 20mins presentation 10mins Q&A Engagement)	5. The Communication and Legitimation Effects on OGD Adoption and Use in Developing Countries: A Case Study of Ghana ( Hubei Nuhu )	5. A model for representing the digital social connectivity of immigrant workers in South Africa ( Steven Mudzungu )
	6. Open Data Accessibility in Driving Development: A Case Study in the South African Tourism Sector ( Siviwe Bala )	6. Digitized Displacement Model: A Conceptual Model for Assessing the Impact of ICT and the Resultant Socio-Economic Displacement of Individuals in Emerging Economies ( Nhlanhla Gamede )
	7. Open information access: a case of addressing unemployment in South African youth in Gauteng Province, South Africa ( Vincent Masavah )	7. A Theoretical Look At Women’s ICT Study Choice ( Nita Mennega )
	8. Conceptualizing the influence of Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment (B-BBEE) on the South African ICT sector ( Tendani Thabela-Chimboza )	8. A Social Cognitive View of Student-led Gamification ( Arthur van der Poll )
16h00 – 16h30	TEA
16h30 – 17h15	Invited speaker Presentation – Writing Research Papers (45mins) – Prof Robert Davison &amp; Dr Emma Coleman
17h15 – 17h30	CLOSING	